

Declaration: I confirm I have read the registration form and agree to be bound by the conditions of entry required by the event holder. I confirm, during the period of the event, my entry will be covered by a suitable insurance policy (such as specialist collector's insurance) which includes public liability, display or rally usage. I further confirm the vehicle meets the conditions of the Road Traffic Act and licensing authorities. I further confirm the vehicle to be in a roadworthy condition and I understand the organisers reserve the right to refuse entry to any part of the event if the vehicle is un-roadworthy or if the driver/owner is unable to provide valid documentation. The organisers reserve the right to deny entry for whatsoever reason and their decision is final. I also indemnify the event organisers, The Bexhill 100 Motoring Club and their members from all claims arising from any accident, incident or occurrence during the event.

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS:

The Club keeps an Excel database, maintained by the Car Entry Secretary for the management of the show, this includes name, address, telephone, email, and vehicle details. This database is solely used for communication and administration purposes. It can only be accessed by the Car Entry Secretary and no information is released to other club members or any outside person or organisation unless authorised by you. You have a right to withdraw your consent at any time to your personal data being held as detailed above, but you need to be aware that it would then not be possible to communicate information regarding the show.

I consent to my personal data being retained and use as documented above:
